

Date:

Gender:

Age:

QUESTIONNAIRE

1) When you come to school are you happy to meet your classmates?

Yes,
why? _____

No,
why? _____

I don't know _____

2) Read the situations presented in the table below and check the corresponding boxes:

How often does this happen while you are at school?	Very often	Often	Seldom	Very seldom	Never
A colleague asking another not to play or talk to you.
To be forbidden to take part in group activities by a colleague.
Being threatened to be kicked out of a group by a colleague.
Being threatened to be hurt or beaten by a colleague.
Being humiliated or made fun of by a colleague.
Bad rumours about you spread by a colleague.
Getting your stuff destroyed by a colleague.
Getting pushed off by a colleague.

Getting beaten by a colleague.
Getting humiliated by a colleague(or making others do it) on your social media account (or theirs).
Being intimidated by colleagues because you look or you are different.
Getting discriminated by colleagues because looking or being different.
Getting threatened by colleagues because of looking or being different.
Getting physically abused by colleagues because of looking or being different.
Getting hated on social media by colleagues because of looking or being different.
Another situation (Please describe it here!)

3) Read the situations presented in the table below and check the corresponding boxes:

How often does this happen while you are at school?	Very often	Often	Seldom	Very seldom	Never
Seeing a colleague asking another not to play or talk to other students.
Seeing a colleague forbidding another to take part in group activities.
Seeing a colleague threatening another to be kicked out of a group.
Seeing a colleague threatening another to be hurt or beaten.
Seeing a colleague making fun or humilliating another.
Seeing a colleague spreading bad rumours about another.
Seeing a colleague destroyng another's stuff.
Seeing a colleague beating another.
Witnessing the humilliation of a classmate on his social media account (or on other accounts)

Seeing a colleague intimidating another because of looking or being different.
Seeing a colleague discriminating another because of looking or being different.
Seeing a colleague threatening another because of looking or being different.
Seeing a colleague physically abusing another because looking or being different.
Seeing a colleague putting bad labels of another on social media because of looking or being different.
Another situation (Please describe it here!)

4) Read the situations presented below and check the corresponding boxes:

How often do you do this things while at school?	Very often	Often	Seldom	Very seldom	Never
Ask a colleague not to play or talk to other students.
Forbid a colleague to take part in group activities.
Threaten a colleague to be kicked out of a group.
Threaten a colleague to get hurt or beaten.
Humilliate or make fun of a colleague.
Spread bad rumours about a colleague.
Destroy a colleague's stuff.
Beat a colleague.
Humilliate a colleague on his social media account (or others).
Intimidate a colleague because of looking or being different.
Discriminate a colleague because of looking or being different.
Threaten because of looking or being different.
Physically abuse a colleague because of looking or being different.

Put bad labels on a colleague on his social media account (or others) because of looking or being different.
Another situation (Please describe it here!)

5) Describe, in a few words, how do you react to the inappropriate attitude of some of your classmates!

6) Describe, in a few words, what do you do when you see a colleague suffering due to the inappropriate attitude of some of your classmates!

7) What do you think it should be done in school in order to avoid or correct such situations, whenever they happen?
